- Two biplanes, one tank truck, and two trucks were stationed at the Bredow (N 53/Z 55) improvised airfield on 15 September 1950. The take-off strip was marked off by red flags. A radio trailer and, on its side, a box with a rod antenna, about 4 meters high, were on the edge of the field. Three soldiers were lying in front of the box. [REDACTED] left the field. The two biplanes were used for practice flights. *

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. Another source previously reported that the field was 25X1A used by biplanes. See [REDACTED] From previously reported motor 25X1B [REDACTED] it is inferred that the aircraft are assigned to the ground attack regiments stationed in Doeberitz. See [REDACTED] 1A
